12:00 p.m. > Unlocking Metadata: Forensics and Legal Strategy in the Digital Age

90 minutes, 1.5 credits L&LP

Metadata is more than just “data about data.” It is digital evidence hiding in plain sight. From proving timelines to verifying authorship, metadata can make or break a case. In a world in which most evidence is now digital, attorneys must know how to identify, analyze, and leverage metadata to strengthen their arguments, disprove opposing arguments, and protect their clients. This session dives into real-world applications of metadata in the legal world, from discovery to litigation. We’ll also explore how generative AI is changing the metadata landscape and why a deeper understanding is now more critical than ever.

- Rachel Edwards - Oregon State Bar Professional Liability Fund, Tigard, OR
- Daniel B. Garrie - Law & Forensics, LLC, Los Angeles, CA
