- Legal Research

SCHEDULE

8:10 a.m. > Webcast Sign-In Opens

8:25 a.m. > Welcome and Course Overview

- Jennifer Holderman – Washington State Bar Association, Seattle

8:30 a.m. > Introduction to Federal Indian Law

60 minutes, 1.0 credits L&LP

Federal Indian Law represents a complex field involving the legal relationship between the United States, Native American tribes, and individual tribal members. This presentation offers a foundational overview of the core principles, historical developments, and current issues shaping federal Indian law today. Attendees will gain insight into the origins and evolution of Indian Law and the federal-tribal relationship, including key statutes, treaties, and Supreme Court decisions. The session will explore the doctrine of tribal sovereignty and its implications for self-government, jurisdiction, and the administration of justice in Indian Country, as well as the trust responsibility of the federal government and its impact on tribal lands, resources, and economic development.

- Derek Red Arrow – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Seattle

9:30 a.m. > Business Management Ethical Pitfalls That Get Lawyers in Trouble & How to Avoid Them

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Ethics

Lawyers face a range of ethical risks not just in the courtroom, but in the day-to-day management of their practices. This session explores how common business decisions—like how you bill, supervise staff, manage deadlines, or use technology—can lead to ethics violations if not handled properly. We'll walk through real-world scenarios, highlight relevant RPCs, and offer practical tools and systems to help you stay compliant while running a more efficient, client-centered practice.

- Margeaux Green – Washington State Bar Association, Seattle
