2026 WSBA

SOLO AND SMALL FIRM CONFERENCE

FRIDAY, OCT. 9, 2026 - SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 2026

Building a successful law firm is about more than just practicing law. It's about creating a sustainable business, developing meaningful relationships, and finding support through every phase of the journey.

This conference is designed specifically for solo and small law firm attorneys who want to grow thriving practices while building fulfilling careers and lives. Whether you're considering opening your own firm, navigating the challenges of growth, refining your systems, preparing for succession, or simply looking for a community that understands the unique demands of running a law firm, this event is for you. Because building a law firm isn't a sprint. It's a long game. And you don't have to do it alone.

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS

DAY 1 > FRIDAY, OCT. 9, 2026

9:30 a.m. > Check-in • Walk-in Registration • Morning Refreshments

10:00 a.m. > Starting a Law Firm Bootcamp

120 minutes, 2.0 credits Other

In this session you will have the opportunity to:

- Learn the marketing skills necessary to build a book of business (whether you decide to go solo or not).
- Practical tips on starting and adjusting your practice (including addressing potential hazards you may encounter).
- Identify and respond to the fears that are holding you back from going solo.
- Meet others, so you aren't alone!

We look forward to being together in person and hope you can be a part of it. This is an interactive session, and we welcome input from our audience members.

1:15 p.m. > Counseling Clients in the Age of AI: Ethical Challenges at the Intersection of Technology, Natural Resources and Community Impacts

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Ethics

As artificial intelligence reshapes the economy, lawyers are being asked to advise on projects that promise tremendous innovation while raising difficult questions about energy, water, land use, environmental impacts, and community trust. How should attorneys counsel clients when legal compliance is only part of the equation? This session explores the ethical responsibilities of lawyers in the age of AI and examines how the Rules of Professional Conduct equip attorneys to navigate some of the most consequential legal and societal challenges of the coming decade.

- Bree Black Horse – Kilpatrick, Townsend & Stockton LLP, Seattle

DAY 1 > FRIDAY, OCT. 9, 2026

AFTERNOON SESSION OPTIONS

2:25 p.m. >

Fear, Burnout, and Fresh Starts: How Lawyers Successfully Change Direction

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

Burnout, changing interests, financial pressures, and fear of the unknown often keep lawyers feeling stuck—even when they know something needs to change. Whether you're considering a new practice area, a different business model, or simply a new way of practicing law, making a change can feel overwhelming. Drawing on their own career transitions and their work with solo and small-firm attorneys, Alison Sheets and Shea Meehan will explore the common fears that keep lawyers from making change and provide practical strategies for overcoming them. Through a candid discussion of mentorship, professional resources, business development, and practice management, they will offer a roadmap for successfully transitioning into a new area of practice and relaunching your practice. Attendees will leave with actionable ideas to increase career satisfaction and confidently navigate the next stage of their professional journey.

- Shea Meehan – Cornerstone Wealth Strategies, Kennewick
- Alison Sheets – Sheets Law, Mukilteo

2:25 p.m. >

Lawyer to CEO: The Transition to a More Successful Firm

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

After practicing law for more than 25 years, Patrick Palace made the difficult decision to stop being his firm's primary producer and become its CEO. The result was transformational: in the first year, firm revenue increased by 76%. This session explores how shifting from practicing law to leading a business unlocked sustainable growth through strategic hiring, leadership development, mergers, marketing, technology, culture, and scaling. Learn why many law firm owners create their greatest value not by billing more hours, but by building systems, empowering others, and leading an organization that can grow far beyond the capabilities of any single lawyer.

- Patrick Palace – Palace Law Office, University Place

3:25 p.m. > BREAK

DAY 1 > FRIDAY, OCT. 9, 2026

3:45 p.m. > 22 Graphs Marketing Agencies Don't Want You to See

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

During this highly tactical session, we share a series of graphs that demonstrate how marketing agencies and digital publishers take advantage of the legal industry. From Google's conflation of brand vs non-branded terms, to the overhyped potential of LLMs like ChatGPT — the real data shows the true story. Lawyers can come away armed with a fuller understanding of important growth tactics that work and those that should be viewed with caution.

- Conrad Saam – Mockingbird Marketing, Issaquah

4:45 p.m. > Reception

6:30 p.m. > Dine Around

DAY 2 > SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 2026

8:30 a.m. > Welcome and Introductions

- Kari Petrasek – Petrasek Law PLLC, Mukilteo

8:45 a.m. > Connecting with, Relying on, and Enhancing the Courts throughout Your Career

60 minutes, 1.0 credits L&LP

Our judicial system does much more than resolve disputes. It helps to create a genuine legal community, builds skills for lawyers, and offers opportunities to develop the next generation of legal professionals. Our courts and judges are deeply committed to improving access to justice and learning from lawyers and legal professionals. In this session, Justice Angelis will talk about how the courts can help you, and how you can help the courts and our justice system, at every stage in your career. He will discuss the genuine partnership between courts and lawyers that can, and should, exist throughout your career, even for lawyers whose practices involve little or no litigation. This is also an opportunity to share your insights and suggestions for improving our justice system.

- Justice Theodore J. Angelis – Washington State Supreme Court, Olympia

DAY 2 > SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 2026

MORNING SESSION OPTIONS

9:55 a.m. >

Beyond the Mentor: How Lawyers Learn in a Changing Profession

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

The legal profession is constantly evolving, and so are the ways lawyers learn. Mentorship remains an important part of professional growth, but it is only one piece of the picture.

Join a conversation with lawyers and other professionals as they share how they continue learning throughout their careers. Hear how professional communities, technology, collaboration, and relationships across disciplines have shaped the way they solve problems, adapt to change, and grow as professionals. Leave with practical ideas for building your own network of learning that supports your practice at every stage of your career.

- Margeaux Green – Washington State Bar Association, Seattle
- Ben Schorr – Affinity Consulting, Seattle
- Katie Groblewski – Agile Estate Planning, Seattle
- Zachary Burr – Burwood Law Group, Tacoma

9:55 a.m. >

Competence Over Costumes: Redefining Professionalism for the Next Generation of Lawyers

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

Two newfangled professionals and a highly experienced corporate attorney discuss the value of prioritizing competent representation over keeping up appearances. Ben Nelson aka "The Inked CPA," Tyler O'Brien aka "The Longhair Lawyer," and Jonathan Wright (a former chief compliance officer in Biotech and Renewable Resources and experienced corporate finance professional) have all witnessed "fake it 'till you make it mentalities" blow up in the face of others and want to spare the next generation of professionals from meeting the same fate.

- Tyler O' Brien – The Longhair Lawyer, Ritzville
- Ben Nelson – Nolan Nelson Accounting PLLC, Seattle
- Jonathan Wright – Free Vector Law Group, San Francisco, CA

10:55 a.m. > BREAK

DAY 2 > SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 2026

11:20 a.m. > Cultivating Mental Resilience in Uncertain Times

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

This workshop offers practical, research-informed strategies for maintaining mental clarity, emotional steadiness, and psychological resilience during periods of prolonged uncertainty and rapid change. Participants will learn how to reduce cognitive overload, set healthier boundaries with news and information, and engage in stabilizing actions that support both well-being and effective decision-making. The focus is on sustainable habits that help individuals stay grounded, responsive, and resilient without disengaging from what matters.

- Annasara Purcell – Annasara Purcell Therapy and Consulting, PLLC, Seattle

12:20 p.m. > LUNCH (Hosted)

1:10 p.m. > Empathy, Personal Values and the Ethical Rules: Are They Compatible?

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Ethics

This session will address how and when our personal values and commitment to help others can come into conflict with the Rules of Professional Conduct, including maintaining confidentiality, the duty to advocate zealously and providing non-legal assistance to clients.

- Kevin Bank – Kevin Bank Law, PLLC, Seattle

DAY 2 > SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 2026

AFTERNOON SESSION OPTIONS

2:20 p.m. >

Leadership and Liability of Law Firm Hiring

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

This session will touch on the distinction between independent contractors and employees, help law firms decide when to hire their first employee, and provide practical guidance on job design, recruiting, and onboarding. It will also identify the major risks to employers in a law firm setting and provide practical ways to address those risks.

- Aaron Rocke – Rocke Law Group, PLLC, Seattle

2:20 p.m. >

Beyond Busywork: Unlocking the Full Potential of Your Staff

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Other

This CLE will help you think differently about how to teach, mentor, and utilize staff. We'll explore practical ways to prioritize training, delegate with purpose, and create opportunities for staff to take ownership of meaningful work—not just routine tasks. Attendees will leave with strategies for building stronger teams, improving efficiency, and creating a workplace where team members are excited to learn, grow, and develop valuable new skills.

- Molly Ashe – DuBois Levias Law Group, PLLC, Seattle
- Shawna Davies – DuBois Levias Law Group, PLLC, Seattle

3:20 p.m. > BREAK

3:35 p.m. > Judges' Panel: Solo Practice Does Not Mean Solo Support

60 minutes, 1.0 credits Ethics

We all become better practitioners when we invest in each other. Our Judges' Panel will explore ethical considerations for the solo and small practitioner when establishing community connections.

- Judge Anthony Gipe – Kent Municipal Court, Kent
- Justice Salvador A. Mungia – Washington State Supreme Court, Olympia
- Judge Sonia Rodriguez True – Yakima County Superior Court, Yakima
